Upcoming Events for March:

For additional info on the events below, please visit PCMS website on the "Community Events" page! You can also find the events listed on the Community Google Calendar.

- March 3 - Overlook: Craft Club: 10AM-5PM - Looking for a relaxing space to work on your craft projects and meet like-minded neighbors? Whether you enjoy quilting, crocheting, knitting, embroidery, or any other creative hobby, this club is for you! Bring your own supplies and projects to work on while socializing with others who love crafting too. This isn't a teaching class, so there's no instructions, just a friendly group of crafters sharing good company.
- March 4 - Overlook: Book Club: 6:30-8PM - Join us on the first Wednesday of every month for a fun and relaxed evening of book talk, laughter, and good company! We will be discussing "Project Hail Mary" by Rebecca Yarros. Check out the Colliers Hill Book Club Facebook group to see what we're reading each month, and don't forget to bring a snack or drink to share as we chat and unwind.
- March 11 - Overlook: Mahjong Club: 5:30PM - Looking for a fun way to connect and unwind? Join us at the Overlook Clubhouse for a lively Colliers Hill Mahjong Kickoff Party! Drop by for Open Play between 5:30-8:30PM. Bring a snack or beverage to share. Do you have Mahjong tiles? Bring them! Mats and racks also needed. New to Mahjong? We'll have a lesson at 6:30PM, then you can practice with others if you'd like! Come and join us!
- March 24 - Overlook: Bi-Annual Blood Donation Drive: 10AM-2PM - Let's save lives together, one pint at a time! Blood drives are an amazing way to make a difference in our community because every donation can help save up to three lives. But here's the catch: we need enough heroes to make it happen! If you're ready to roll up your sleeve and join the life-saving squad, let us know. Together, we can make this event a success and have some fun along the way! 16+ and up are welcome! Scan the QR code to reserve a spot!
- March 2 + 9 + 16 + 23 + 30 - Overlook: Yoga Class: 9:30AM - Join us for a vinyasa-based yoga class every Monday in March at 9:30AM at the Overlook Clubhouse. Please bring your own mat and scan the QR code to sign up so we can gauge interest for each class. See you then!
- WE ARE HIRING: Colliers Hill Ascent & Overlook Pool Monitors - Part-Time - Onsite - $18.50/hour - Looking for a fun summer job? Join the RPM team and help create a safe, clean, and welcoming pool environment for our Colliers Hill community! Interested? Contact MaCayla Longson at mlongson@recreationpm.com or go to www.recreationpm.com to apply!

Complaint Procedure

Who May Submit Complaints? Complaints regarding alleged violations of the Covenants, Complaints regarding alleged violations of the Covenants, Design Guidelines or Rules and Regulations may be reported by members of the Board of Directors, members of the Community or the Association's Manager.

How Complaints Should be Submitted. Complaints by a member of the community shall be in writing and must include a contact name and email address or phone number in case there is an inquiry from the Board or management office regarding the complaint submitted. Anonymous complaints will not be accepted. Your name and contact information will not be provided to the person you have made a complaint about; it is only needed for the management team. The member must have observed the alleged violation and shall contain the nature of the alleged violation, the location of the alleged violation and the date it was observed, photos are very helpful. A complaint may also be submitted by any member of the Board of Directors or by the Association Manager after a walk through or inspection of the Community.

You may send your concerns to PCS via email at support@pcms.net or via fax at 303-224-0002.

Welcome to the Covenant Corner;

This new section of the E-news will focus on highlighting common covenant violations identified during routine inspections and those reported within the community. We look forward to providing this information and appreciate the community's assistance in addressing violations promptly to help maintain property values and keep our neighborhood safe, welcoming, and well-maintained.

The Declaration of Covenants, Guidelines, Resolutions, and the Covenant Enforcement Procedure are available for review at any time on the community website.

Architectural Answers

Welcome to Architectural Answers! This section is here to help answer some of the most common questions we receive about exterior improvements to your home and lot. Each month, we'll highlight a different topic to make the process a little clearer and easier to navigate.

To start with the basics: in most cases, approval is required for any exterior change to your home or property, unless the Community Guidelines specifically state otherwise. This includes modifications, additions, or alterations. Generally, true "like-for-like" replacements, standard repairs, or repainting using your existing approved color scheme do not require approval.

Before beginning any project, we encourage you to review your Association's Community Guidelines, which are available on the Association website. Taking a few minutes to check the guidelines first can save time and prevent delays.

When submitting a request, please be sure to complete the "Description of Improvements" section with a detailed explanation of your project. Simply writing "see attached" isn't sufficient, as a written description helps ensure your request can be reviewed as quickly as possible.

If you have questions or would like guidance before submitting, the Design Review department is happy to help! You can reach out via email at designreview@pcms.net.

We look forward to working with you on your future projects!

Is It Easy To Grow Columbines In Colorado?

Like any good question, this one opens up a can of (earth) worms. It depends on which columbines you want to grow, and what your site is like. Columbines (genus Aquilegia) are a large group of plants, and you can find a good columbine for a broad spectrum of garden sites as long as the conditions are not completely dry. Rock garden species can require perfect drainage, and tend to be more challenging than the “garden varieties.” While easier to grow, these larger plants are no less charming than their diminutive counterparts. Let’s take a look at a few of them.

Colorado Columbines

If you hear about columbines in Colorado, you will likely think of the state flower, the “Colorado Columbine,” or Aquilegia coerulea. This classic pale blue/lavender and white gem can be found growing in damp places in the foothills up to nearly timberline. It prefers cool, somewhat shaded conditions and moist soil that drains reasonably well. Lower elevation gardeners may struggle to provide this, but luckily, some other options are out there.

Hybrid Columbines

A good many garden columbines are hybrids of two or more species. They’ve been chosen for a variety of colors and flower forms. If you’d like a Colorado columbine but are gardening at lower elevation, you might consider growing the REMEMBRANCE™ Columbine, Aquilegia ‘Swan Violet and White’. Its rich purple-and-white blooms are a good imitation of the state flower. Other hybrids can be red, pink, yellow, cream, pale blue, and either single or double. No columbine is particularly long-lived, though they do tend to reproduce on their own from seed in the garden. If you have more than one kind (or even if your neighbor does), prepare to have the offspring not look like the parents—columbines cross-pollinate easily!

Common Columbine

The European common columbine, Aquilegia vulgaris, is a parent of many of the hybrid types and can be grown on its own in Colorado gardens as well. It prefers similar conditions to the others we’ve discussed—light shade and rich, moist soil that still drains. Common columbine flowers are often a single color.

DENVER GOLD® Columbine

The yellow-flowering columbine, Aquilegia chrysantha, (promoted by Plant Select as DENVER GOLD® is perhaps the most durable columbine that lower elevation gardeners in Colorado can choose. This species is native to (the damper parts of) Arizona and other western states. It is the most tolerant of dry, clay soil of the typical garden columbines, but it still likes to have extra water, which doubtless reminds it of its home in the canyon bottoms. The flowers are cheerful yellow, with long spurs. This species will seed around quite a bit if it’s happy, and the gold flower color is dominant when combining with other varieties. If you’re growing more than one variety and DENVER GOLD® is in the mix, I hope you like yellow.

Common Challenges

Given moderately developed garden soil, some supplemental water, and afternoon shade, these columbines will all grow well in most Colorado gardens. Cutting the flower stalks back after bloom can prolong plants’ lives, but no columbine is long-lived. Leave some seedheads to allow for natural propagation, but remember that the offspring won’t always look like the parent plants. Columbine leaf miners, a type of native fly, can disfigure the leaves but aren’t usually a threat to the plants’ health. Sawflies (a wasp-relative whose larvae look like caterpillars) can defoliate whole plants, and are usually taken more seriously. The larvae feed at night; a trip to the garden with a flashlight and a cup of soapy water (or your fingernails, if you’re not squeamish), can usually resolve an infestation. If you’ve had problems with these before, scout frequently to catch the issue early.

More information

We’ve only scratched the surface of the world of columbines, and more species even for the novice gardener are out there to try, including western natives like red columbine (Aquilegia formosa). If you’re interested in making columbines a part of your gardening life, I can’t recommend highly enough the book Columbines: Aquilegia, Paraquilegia and Semiaquilegia by eminent Colorado horticulturist Robert Nold, to whose work I hope this little article will draw your attention.

You Might Be Overassessed - Here's How to Know Without Guessing

By Martin Froehlich, Founder & CEO, Assessorly

A lot of homeowners already suspect it: "My property taxes are too high"

The issue is you can't get money back on a gut feeling, you need a clean, evidence-backed answer and a clear next step.

County values are produced through mass-appraisal models. They're built to work at scale and are regularly calibrated for new sales, policies, and legal requirements but they're still models. And by design, error is inevitable. When that error lands on your property, your assessed value can run ahead of the market and you end up paying for it every year.

The good news: you don't have to become an appraiser to determine whether it's real.

At Assessorly, we built a quick check that helps homeowners move from "I think I'm overassessed" to "Here's what the market supports and the resulting savings." It takes about 30 seconds, and it provides clarity on whether your assessment looks supported and what the practical next steps are if it isn't.

If you've been meaning to look but didn't know where to start, this is the start.
